

Location	Inscription on plaque
Deerhurst, 50 Baldwins Hill	Sir Jacob Epstein (1880 -1959) Sculptor, lived in this house 1933-1950
Forest Villa, 7 Staples Road	The Revd. Robert Hunter (1823-1897) Lexicographer and naturalist
Loughton Park Hotel, 107 High Road (reinstalled on Collins Court)	Jose (Josephine) Collins (1887-1958) Music Hall artiste
96 Goldings Road (site of the former Feltham House)	William Wymark Jacobs (1863-1943) Writer of short stories
9 Woodbury Hill	William Bridges Adams (1797-1872) Inventor and polemicist, and his wife Sarah Flower Adams (1805-1848) Hymnodist and poet
Lopping Hall, 187-191 High Road	The Lopping Hall, built in 1883 out of compensation for the loss of lopping rights in Epping Forest
169 High Road (formerly Abbotts Travel)	Site of a bookshop run by Sir William Addison (1905-1992), author, jurist and historian
8 Lower Park Road	John Strevens (1902-1990) Artist
33 The Avenue	Capt. Richard Stannard VC (1902-1977) Hero of the evacuation of Namsos, 1940
Roding Valley High School	County High School for Girls (opened 1908), and Winifred Darch (1884-1960), children's author
164 Torrington Drive	Pte. Sidney Godley (1889-1957) Awarded the first VC of the Great War 23rd August 1914
70 High Road	In Salcombe House near this site lived Arthur Morrison (1863-1945), author and writer on Japanese art
11 Wallers Hoppett	At Ash Green of which this street was the garden, lived William Chapman Waller (1850-1917) Historian
97 High Road	In Algers House near this site lived John Finlaison (1783-1860) Government Actuary and first President of the Institute of Actuaries
116 Forest Road	George Granville Barker (1913-91) Poet was born here
47 Poundfield Road	Marine William Sparks DSM (1922-2002) "Cockleshell Hero" Bordeaux 1942 lived here
47/49 Baldwins Hill	Muriel Lester (1885 - 1968) & her sister Doris (1886 - 1965) peace campaigners and philanthropists lived & worked here
Staples Road Junior School	George Pearson (1875 - 1973) Film Producer, was Headmaster here 1908 - 1913
The wall of St John's Churchyard, Church Lane, Loughton	Thomas Willingale (1799 - 1870) Lopper, who helped save the forest, is buried in this churchyard
311 High Road (the former site of Monghyr Cottage, 2 Traps Hill)	James Cubitt (1836 - 1912) Architect lived and died here
Meads, 77 Church Hill	Millais Culpin (1874 - 1952) Medical Psychologist lived here
49 Forest View Road	Samuel Hazzledine Warren (1873 - 1958) Palaeontologist and Geologist lived here
22 Brooklyn Avenue	Ron Greenwood (1921 - 2006), England Football Manager, Lived here
Goldings, Clays Lane	Everard Richard Calthrop (1857 - 1927), Engineer and pioneer of the parachute , Lived here
43, Barncroft Close	Gladys Mills (1918 - 1978), Pianist, Lived here
83, Baldwins Hill	Doctor Fred Stoker (1878 - 1943) Doctor and Horticulturist, Lived here
Loughton Lodge, Steeds Way	Mary Anne Clarke (c1776 - 1852) Royal Mistress, Lived here

3 Sparelease Hill	Ethel Haslam (1881 - 1961) Suffragette, Lived here
The Hollies, 11 Albion Hill	Sir Rowland Hill (1795 - 1879) and Francis Worrall Stevens (c1807 - c1880) who were pioneers of the Postage Stamp, Lived here
47 Sparelease Hill	Rupert Arnold Brabner, DSO, DSC, MP, (1911 - 1945) Commander, Fleet Air Arm and Government Minister and Jean Gwenneth Brabner hospital doctor, (1913 - 1944), Lived here
28 Roding Road	Donald W Gillingham (1906 - 1965), Author of Unto the Fields, Lived here
41 The Uplands	Sir Frank Baines, KCVO (1877 - 1933) Architect. Lived here
Woodcroft School, Whittakers Way	Sir Hugh Cairns (1896-1952) Neurosurgeon, Advocate of crash helmets. Lived here
Elm Cottage, Debden Road	William Brown Macdougall(1868 - 1936) Artist and his wife Margaret Armour (1860 - 1943) Author, Lived here
1 Connaught Avenue	Braeside, this house served as the Loughton Red Cross Military Hospital (1914 - 1919)
6 Queens Road	Ralph Russell (1918 - 2008) Leading Western Urdu Scholar, Lived here
Swiss Cottage, 40 Baldwins Hill	Ken Campbell (1941 - 2008) Actor, Director & Playwright, Lived here
East 15 Acting School, Hatfields, Rectory Lane	Margaret Walker (1922 - 2013) Founder of East 15 Acting School and Theatre Workshop Director Joan Littlewood (1914 - 2002) Remembered Here
45 Millsmead Way IG10 1LR	Ruth Rendell (1930 - 2015) Author Lived here